ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
No. 2013-34

DATE: October 23, 2013

FROM Steven M. Basha, Presiding Judge

TO: Judicial Officers
Yolo County District Attorney
Yolo County Public Defender
Conflicts Panel

SUBJECT: Felony Trial Assignments

EFFECTIVE: Immediately

For felony trials estimated to last six (6) days or more, the assigned judge, in consultation with the Supervising Criminal Judge and the Presiding Judge, may set the matter on calendar for a trial setting conference in the assigned judge's department. Factors to be considered in making this determination are to include: the department in which the trial will be held, courtroom availability, the estimated length of trial as determined by the assigned judge and the Supervising Criminal Judge, other demands on Court needs, and all other aspects of judicial efficiency. In all such cases, the final decision of the courtroom for a six (6) days or more felony trial shall rest with the Presiding Judge.
